Sustainability

Experience in Finland

I used to go shopping every day, bought me some new clothes, threw old ones away, I thought that it would make me feel good.
Never worried about economy, the origin of clothes or ecology the main thing was to look good.

Knowing what to wear,
now I am aware what I wear
now I am aware what I wear
and everybody knows that.

Now I am more considering, I buy less ,but things that are lasting more than just one washing.
I`m capable of repairing as well as recycling and re-using, know how to give new life to old rags.

Knowing what to wear,
now I am aware what I wear
now I am aware what I wear
and everybody knows that.

I`m still looking mighty good with my new looks and my new mood, I`m treating the nature with respect.
I want to share this wisdom with everyone: You`re coolness is not dependent on wearing new clothes every week.

Knowing what to wear,
now I am aware what I wear
now I am aware what I wear and everybody sees that.

with their outfits?
